Law Day Conference 2009!

CRF-OC wants you and your students to attend this unique program! The conference brings students, teachers, judges, and attorneys together to discuss, debate, and share opinions on current Constitutional issues of interest to high school students. Last year's topics included "Peer Court: Juvenile Justice in Action." "The War on Hugs: Public Displays of Affection at School." "Students Rights to Religious Expression at School: Should God be expelled?" "Election 2008: Is this anyway to pick a candidate?" Lastly, "Cyber Bullies & Internet Predators: Has free speech gone too far?" Space is limited sign up soon so you won't miss out.

Date/Location: May 19, 2009 (8:45 am- 12:00 lunch provided)
Whittier Law School, Costa Mesa

Scholarships: Scholarships are available to assist with the cost of a teacher substitute pay and bus transportation.
