WORKSHOP 4 - ROOM 12
PUBLIC ACCOMMODATION VS. RELIGIOUS FREEDOM: WHEN TWO BRIDES WANT TO HIRE A RELIGIOUS CAKE MAKER, CAN RELIGIOUS BELIEFS OVERRIDE ANTI-DISCRIMINATION LAWS?

A city clerk in Kentucky refuses to issue marriage licenses to gay couples; a wedding cake baker will not sell a cake to LGBTQ couples; a wedding photographer refuses to help celebrate an LGBTQ wedding.

PRIVATE SOCIAL MEDIA? SEPARATING FACT FROM OPINION; RE-POSTING A "PRIVATE" MESSAGE PUBLICLY; AND "THE RIGHT TO BE FORGOTTEN" - WHERE ARE WE HEADED?

How do we know what to believe? Do we have any confidentiality rights online? What if hackers reveal my personal information? What if we don’t want certain things about us memorialized – can we prevent this?

VACCINATIONS FOR ALL IN SCHOOL: CAN THE GOVERNMENT REQUIRE AND FORCE PARENTS TO HAVE THEIR KIDS VACCINATED?

A law was passed by the California legislature and signed by the governor that requires students to be vaccinated against certain diseases before they can be admitted to public and private schools. Can the government do this? What about our Constitutional rights, freedom of religion, and our right to privacy?

WORKSHOP 1 - ROOM 1

PEER COURT: TEEN JUSTICE IN ACTION

Ever wonder what it is like during a criminal court trial? Find out by participating in a Peer Court session. Peer Court is an innovative program where students (peers) serve as jurors and assign sanctions to juvenile offenders in actual court cases. During the Peer Court hearing, student jurors are selected from the audience. They listen to the facts, question the juvenile offender, deliberate and recommend consequences to the judge. The judge reviews the jury’s recommendation and assigns sanctions to the juvenile.

DEBUNKING TV LAW: WHAT RIGHTS DO YOU REALLY HAVE IN A CRIMINAL CASE? WHAT ABOUT THE 6TH AMENDMENT?

On TV, people are always read their Miranda rights; public defenders are assigned quickly; police use deception and are often untruthful when interviewing suspects as part of their investigation. What is truth and what is fiction?
