WORKSHOPS

Workshop #4 - Room 12

Reading Between the Blurred Lines: How Technology Has Affected Copyright Law in the Music Industry

Cases of music plagiarism go back to Chuck Berry vs. The Beach Boys in 1966 to the recent presidential election with Aerosmith's Steven Tyler vs. Donald Trump over the use of "Dream On" at Trump political rallies. Who owns the music? How do they get paid? When you share music with your friends, is it OK, or are you ripping someone off? How can copyright infringement involving someone else's work be proven, what are the complications of ever changing technology, and what are the possible consequences and solutions?

LLP

Workshop #5 - Room 14

Drug Sniffing Dogs: Do Your Constitutional Rights End Where the Dog's Nose Begins?

The U.S. Supreme Court has confirmed many times that students "do not shed their constitutional rights at the schoolhouse gate," but California law also guarantees students a right to attend campuses that "are secure, peaceful and safe." In an era with a growing focus on violent, tragic events on school campuses, has the use of drug sniffing dogs tipped this balance too far in favor of sacrificing student rights?

Lysa Saltzman, Esq., Moderator Orange County Department of Education

Christine Schulz Interquest Canines of San Diego

Officer Phil Walsh Irvine Police Department

David W. Wiechert, Esq. Law Offices of David W. Wiechert

Workshop #6 - Room 1

Peer Court: Teen Justice in Action

Ever wonder what it is like to sit on a jury? During this workshop, students jurors are selected from the audience to listen to the facts of a real case, question the juvenile offender, and deliberate and recommend consequences to the judge.

Workshop #1 - Room 7

Justice Jeopardy: Explore & Debate the Powers Given to Prosecutors

Play a game of “Jeopardy” with this panel made up of former prosecutors and criminal defense attorneys. WIN PRIZES as you debate which offenders should be prosecuted and which set free by picking themes on the Justice Jeopardy Board!

Michael L. Fell, Esq., Moderator Law Office of Michael L.. Fell
Kimberly La Salle, Esq. Law Office Kimberly La Salle
Brian Orue, Esq. O.C. District Attorney's Office

Workshop #2 - Room 8

Stop! Police! — What Are Your Rights & Responsibilities When Stopped By a Police Officer?

Many police interactions with the public lead to unnecessary confrontations and violence. What are your rights and how should you protect yourself in what could be a dangerous situation for you and the police officer, who may not know whether you are or are not a dangerous person? Lawfulness means that police comply with constitutional, statutory and professional norms but they also have a right to be safe and protect themselves. Learn more about the real life concerns and issues from a police officer, a prosecutor and criminal defense attorney.

Shashi Kewalramani, Esq., Moderator SJH|K Legal, APC
Officer Mathew Aragon Irvine Police Department
Kate Corrigan, Esq. Corrigan| Welbourn| Stokke
Susan Price, Esq. O.C. District Attorney's Office

Workshop #3 - Room 10

Drug Legalization or Decriminalization? Examine & Debate Current Drug Laws — Do They Help or Harm?

26 states and the District of Columbia now have some form of regulated and controlled marijuana use. So now what? What should be the policy goals of decriminalization? Do the current laws meet these policy goals? What else can policymakers do to protect all of us from the harms of the presence of marijuana and other drugs in our society? How can we set up a system that maximizes health and safety, while still holding individuals responsible for their actions?
