

CONSTITUTION DAY

REGISTER NOW

WHAT ?

CRF-OC's Constitution Day program provides an interactive lesson on the U.S. Constitution that is presented by a volunteer judge or attorney. This year's lesson will focus on freedom of the press under the First Amendment. It will be conducted virtually and provide opportunities for student interaction and discussion.

WHO ?

This program is open to 12th grade U.S. Government classes.

WHEN ?

This lesson will be offered on a day during the week of Constitution Day, September 14-18, 2020, as well as the spring of 2021 (exact dates to be determined) so that students taking U.S. Government in the second term can benefit as well.

HOW ?

Teachers should register today to participate! Space is limited, register at: <https://www.crfoc.org/constitution-day-2020>

Questions? Contact CRF-OC Program Manager
Theresa Bernard at tbernard@crfoc.org